• The routes that follow are suggestions that cover a selection of good roads in the area
• There are many variations possible by combining parts of these routes – so explore!
• We have ridden most of these roads in the past, BUT we cannot attest to the current conditions
• As the week passes and riders navigate these roads, we will try to pass the word if there are any major problems reported